

ABSTRACT

A pharmaceutical combination includes an effective amount for a day of amphetamine in base and/or salt form where the molar ratio of l-amphetamine to d-amphetamine released therefrom in a time period later in the day is higher than said ratio released therefrom in a time period earlier in the day.